Would you like Mrs. Mac to plan a cooking class for your group??

Sample AGENDA

- Overview of today's dish and some background on the process
- Preparation of recipe and description of intricacies to be aware of in preparation
- The actual preparation of the dish
- Description of the process and the right procedures to guarantee the proper outcome
- Presentation of finished product
  - Presentation
  - Samples to class participants
  - Questions/answers
  - Miscellaneous
- Distribution of recipes to all attendees
- Requests for other topics
- Open discussion and sharing of results

NOTES: Depending upon the recipe being generated (or combination of recipes) the timeframe for most classes is from two hours to three hours (announced prior to the class). All participants will get copies of recipes with color pictures of finished products, and notes for any other associated tasks to complete the recipe.

Mrs. Mac is available via email for questions any time a class participant wants to attempt a taught recipe and needs to check any part of the process to ensure a successful outcome.

Our Goal is...

... to provide the best desserts anywhere. These desserts won't be found at the grocery store, and there will be no cost-cutting or scrimping on ingredients. We cook from scratch with the best quality ingredients available.

Mrs. Mac's Cookies/PLUS does not provide run-of-the-mill bakery goods. Ask our clients; we'll give you references.

So, if you need one extraordinary dessert, or several, for a special birthday, a baby or wedding shower, or for a special person or event, call Mrs. Mac...
